

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary just days before the election is clearly a partisan effort to influence the public is a travesty in terms of what I believe to be the scope of their public
responsibility.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This effort of there's to tarnish John Kerry's reputation is not in the public interest
or actions in a responsible
democaratic society.
When large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
should be addressed by the FCC and
liscense renewal
should seriously be questioned. Thank you.
